

Amla Plex

Amla Plex is made from 35 selected ingredients, including spices and herbal extracts. It is based on a traditional Chavanprash recipe from Ayurvedic tradition. This ancient recipe is considered one of the world's best immune enhancers and is a natural source of vitamin C, bioflavonoids, and tannins*. Its primary ingredient, the Amla fruit (Embllica officinalis), has traditionally been used as a rejuvenative and an adaptogen. The fruit has documented antioxidant properties.

In Ayurveda, Amla is used to promote lean body mass, immune function and general well-being and helps to maintain blood sugar levels already within the normal range*. Along with its many other benefits, it also provides great nutritional support for all the family. Amla Plex, is a dosha balancer, a rasayana in Ayurveda, and is said to maintain vitality and youthfulness*.
